AWARENESS ON MENSTRUAL HEALTH AND HABITS

On 18th January 2020 – Five students from Department of Lifelong Learning & Extension of Pillai College of Arts, Commerce & Science (Autonomous), New Panvel conducted a social activity for the slum dwellers near Panvel Railway Station. The activity was on “Awareness on Menstrual Health and Habits” which focused on spreading awareness about using sanitary napkins instead of clothes. They were told about the hazards and cons of using clothes and how they may lead to infections during their menstrual cycle which also may spread and cause infertility and be fatal in a few cases. A few Sanitary Napkins were also distributed to them.

SOCIAL ACTIVITY ON PROVIDING MEDICAL KITS

On 31st January, 2020 – DLLE Students of Pillai College of Arts, Commerce and Science conducted a social activity for people in need. Our students provided medical kits to a few slum dwellers. The condition of the Panvel station slum is way too bad and unhygienic. In an attempt to spread awareness about the increasing diseases our students chose 10 houses. These 10 houses were educated about personal and environmental hygiene and provided with medical kits. The kits contained Sanitizers, antiseptic liquid and soap and mosquito repellent cream. All in all the activity was a success and all members got to know a lot about the importance of hygiene and the impact of diseases on a day to day life.

UDAAN – THE FLIGHT OF EXTENSION

On 26th February, 2020 17 students (15 for Street Play and 2 for Poster Competition) from our college had participated in the UDAAN FEST at Anjuman-I-Islam's Kalsekar Technical Campus organized by The Department of LifeLong Learning and Extension, University of Mumbai. This event was commenced by the arrival of the various colleges.

The events were Street Play and Poster Making Competition in which teams from different colleges performed excellently. Our college participated in both the events.

The students really enjoyed a lot and dispersed with a sincere hope that such mega events should be organized time and again giving the students a chance to display their talents.

The skit dealt with the issue of the LGBTQ+ community. The students acted naturally and meticulously with raw talent. Performance was staged with appropriate props. Collaborative efforts and hard work of all the students involved was evident.
